REACH Forgiveness steps

| Recall a hurtful experience, what happened? What did you feel & think? |
|--|
| |
| |
| |
| |
| Empathise – defend the person (without agreeing what they did) |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| Altruism, make the unselfish gift of forgiveness (in order to move on) |
| |
| Commit yourself to forgive by writing a letter to the person where you explain how |
| they hurt your feelings but but that you forgive and move on (you might never show |
| them the letter) (you can still learn to be more careful around that person). |
| |
| |
| |
| |

Hold on to the forgiveness whenever this hurtful episode comes into your mind by reminding yourself that you have forgiven. Some people tear up the letter of forgiveness as a sign that they are letting it go.